are who we?

A voluntary and spontaneous group, including NWU Faculties and Support Departments engaging in exploratory and critical conversations – driving academic integrity at NWU

- To establish CoPAI identity
- Sharing of best practices through Appreciative Inquiry as research methodology
- Creating and sharing of knowledge in the form of research outputs
- National & International collaboration

Why now? Education and assessment in the ambit of online teaching and learning. Actionable insights for a long-term project towards academic integrity
