

NWU email address

Students are required to provide the university with an e-mail address as the official e-mail address for communication from the NWU during registrations. Follow these steps if your e-mail has changed.

1. Click on eMail update in the menu on the eFundi landing page (before your log in)

for Students

From 2016 all registered students of the NWU are assigned a NWU Gmail email address.

- What is my NWU Gmail address?
- How will the NWU know what email address to send my correspondence to?

Students are encouraged to provide their NWU Gmail email address, as the official email address for communication from the NWU, during the registration process.

If you didn't provide your NWU Gmail email address during registration, you can do so by clicking here.

The process is as follows:

- 1 Provide your information
- 2 Verify your email address

1. Click the link to provide a new e-mail address.

mobile.nwu.ac.za/mdot/myprofile#

4. Insert your student number in the space provided.

The screenshot shows the eFundi website interface. At the top, a red banner contains the instruction: "4. Insert your student number in the space provided." Below this, the website header includes navigation links like "Most Visited", "CTL related", "Training/webinars", "Getting Started", "IT HELP", "Research", and "SMARTguides". The eFundi logo is on the left, and "Login" and "Guest Login" are on the right. The main navigation bar shows "Gateway" and "EMAIL UPDATE". A left sidebar contains links for "Overview", "Library", "Reset Passwords", "eMail update", "Contact us", and "Help". The main content area is titled "NWU (Public)" and "Settings". It includes a welcome message and instructions for updating the email address. A blue header section indicates "Email: Unknown". The text explains that the email address is used for communication and that a verification email will be sent. It also notes that this setting is only for non-staff members. A red rectangular box highlights the "NWU Number" input field, which is currently empty. Below the input field is an "OK" button. At the bottom of the page, a status bar indicates "Connecting to www.google-analytics.com..."
